

L. 1/9. 33

My dear Sir,

27 Dec 1742

In the supposition that you would lose your money by accepting for my accomodation, you certainly acted quite right in refusing to do so - If I had thought so I should not have asked you - but howeser I may be distressed at present I believe I am far from being unable to receive my lopes - certainly with more ease if I had been assisted but still I hope by the end of next year not to require any further help. I am my dear Sir

Yours truly
Wood

Donec eris felix multos numerabis amicos Tempora si fuerint, nebula, solus eris

W. W. A. —

27 Oct 1842

1842 A 15

[Faint, illegible handwriting throughout the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]